

AURICH 2025

1st Day

Then, we head straight to Amsterdam. During the flight, we can admire all the Dutch landscapes from our windows!

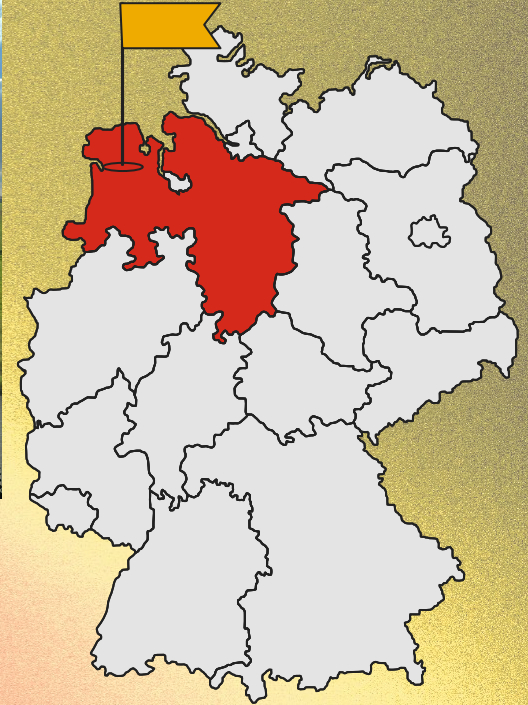

1st Day

Finally, the time has come!!! March 15th, it's morning: around 6 a.m. we meet at the airport. After passing through security checks, there's time for breakfast and getting to know each other.

1st Day

When we landed in the Dutch capital we had lunch at the airport and then we took a coach to head to Aurich.

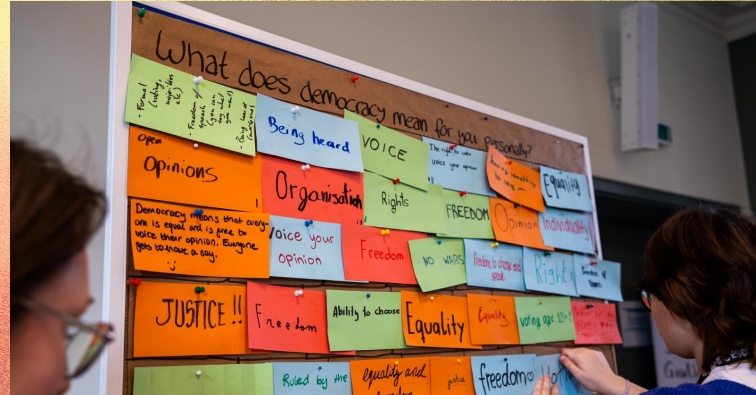

1st Day

After an endless journey, there's time for dinner, an introductory evening, and some well-deserved rest

Sunday

First day of activities!
Everyone was asked to write one word on a piece of paper, stating what democracy is. With many pieces of paper, we built a wall!

Sunday

In the afternoon we discussed the morning in our homegroups and continued preparing the ppt for the national evening

Sunday

We then exited the EuropaHaus and explored Aurich while getting to know the other students!

Sunday

In the evening we played the Imposter game, and, working together with the other groups, we managed to catch them!!

Monday left me broken

In the morning we have done different workshop organized by the teachers of every country.

In the afternoon they divide us in groups, and we did a town rally

The evening

The german people made a presentation about their country. After the presentation the staff organized a bonfire, and we even sang!

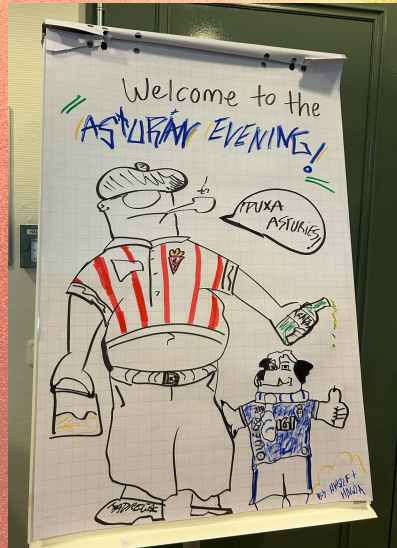

Tuesday

On tuesday morning we went for a visit to the labour camp of Engerhafe. That was an occasion for us to remember and reflect of what discrimination can lead to. This is what we discussed about during our homegroups in the afternoon:

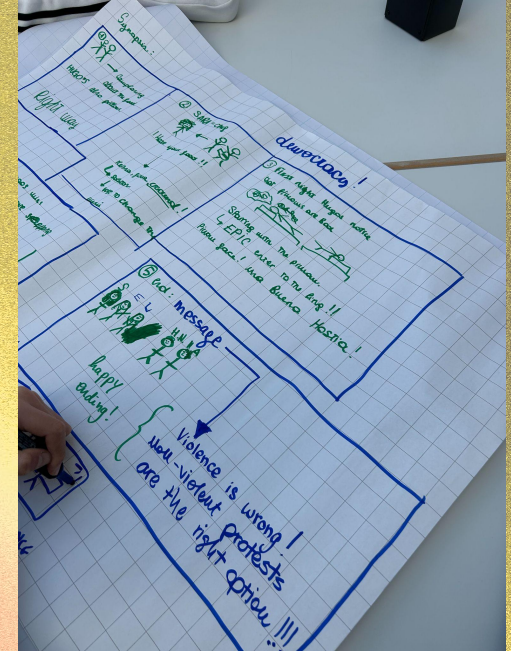

The evening

But before we knew it was time for the Spanish evening!

Wednesday

During wednesday morning we attended the workshops about democracy with our teachers: they were fun activities such as drama or art classes

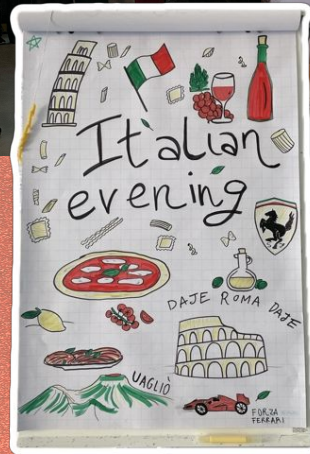

Wednesday

Then there was the dutch afternoon: the dutch told us some curiosities about their country and made us play some traditional games!

Wednesday

In the evening we presented Italy to the other nations, talking about our culture and habits. We had a lot of fun dancing and chatting with our friends

Thursday

The last day began with the learning block on the various activities carried out during the week. Each group introduced their work and then showed any projects carried out during the activity.

Thursday

The rest of the day we spent among ourselves playing in the common room or looking for a gift for our secret friend

The last moments together

The evening started with the memory book and it continued with the party. Here we sang and danced after watching the football matches between our respective nations.
